
DEVANT

Data Privacy Notice

We are Devant Limited, a company with registered number 04904708 and address 1st Floor, Napoleon House Riseley Business Park RG7 1NW. Our Data Protection Lead can be contacted at dataprotection@devant.co.uk. We have produced this privacy notice in order to keep you informed of how we handle your personal data. All handling of your personal data is done in compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 ("Data Protection Legislation"). The terms "Personal Data", "Special Categories of Personal Data", "Personal Data Breach", "Data Protection Officer", "Data Controller", "Data Processor", "Data Subject" and "process" (in the context of usage of Personal Data) shall have the meanings given to them in the Data Protection Legislation. "Data Protection Lead" is the title given to the member of staff leading our data protection compliance programme in lieu of a requirement for a Data Protection Officer.

What are your rights?

When reading this notice, it might be helpful to understand that your rights arising under Data Protection Legislation include:

- The right to be informed of how your Personal Data is used (through this notice);
- The right to access any personal data held about you;
- The right to rectify any inaccurate or incomplete personal data held about you;
- The right to erasure where it cannot be justified that the information held satisfies any of the criteria outlined in this policy;
- The right to prevent processing for direct marketing purposes, scientific/historical research or in any such way that is likely to cause substantial damage to you or another, including through profile building; and
- The right to object to processing that results in decisions being made about you by automated processes and prevent those decisions being enacted.

You can exercise your right to access personal data held about you by emailing dataprotection@devant.co.uk with the subject line: "Subject Access Request". When you submit a 'subject access request', you will need to provide confirmation of your identity by contacting us using the email address associated with your profile, or attaching a photocopy of your driver's license or passport. This is provided free of charge and our response will be made within thirty (30) days, unless our Data Protection Lead deems your request as being excessive or unfounded. If this is the case, we will inform you of our reasonable administration costs in advance and/or any associated delays, giving you the opportunity to choose whether you would like to pursue your request. If you believe we have made a mistake in evaluating your request, please see the section 'Who can you complain to?'

If you have questions about any of the rights mentioned in this section, please contact our Data Protection Lead at dataprotection@devant.co.uk.

Who is the Data Controller?

- If we have collected your personal data directly from you for our own purposes, we are the Data Controller.
- If we have received your personal data as part of a direct administrative relationship between our business and yours, we are the Data Controller.

What are the lawful bases for processing personal data?

Under Data Protection Legislation, there must be a 'lawful basis' for the use of personal data. The lawful bases are outlined in Article 6, Section 1 of the GDPR. They are sub-sections:

- a) 'your consent';
- b) 'performance of a contract';
- c) 'compliance with a legal obligation';
- d) 'protection of your, or another's vital interests';
- e) 'public interest/official authority'; and
- f) 'our legitimate interests'.

What are Devant's 'legitimate interests'?

Legitimate interests are a flexible basis upon which the law permits the processing of an individual's personal data. To determine whether we have a legitimate interest in processing your data, we balance the needs and benefits to us against the risks and benefits for you of us processing your data. This balancing is performed as objectively as possible by our Data Protection Lead. You are able to object to our processing and we shall consider the extent to which this affects whether we have a legitimate interest. If you would like to find out more about our legitimate interests, please contact dataprotection@devant.co.uk.

About our processing of your data

We might collect, use, store and transfer different kinds of Personal Data about you which we have grouped together as follows:

Identity Data such as names, usernames or similar; marital status; title; date of birth; sex and gender.

What happens if I refuse to give Devant my personal data?

If your personal data is used for Client Services or the Web Shop, your personal information has been collected as part of a statutory obligation arising under s388(4)(a) C.A. 2006, Paragraph 6, Schedule 11, VAT Act 1994 and HMRC Notice 700/21 (October 2013). Failure to process your data could result in us being unable to enter into a contract with you to provide services or being unable to comply with our contractual or legal obligations. The information about you that we have collected for the performance of our contracts is required in order for us to successfully fulfil our obligations to you. If you choose not to provide the personal data requested, we will not be able to enter into a contract with you to provide the services we offer. If we are already processing your personal information under a contract, you must end our contractual relationship (as/where permitted) in order to exercise some of your rights.

What 'cookies' does Devant use?

We may obtain information about your general internet usage and the usage of our website by using a cookie file which is stored on your computer or smartphone. Cookies help us to improve our website and to deliver a better and more personalised service to you, and some of the cookies we use are essential for our website to operate.

What profiling or automated decision making does Devant perform?

Devant does not perform any profiling or automated decision making based on your personal data.

How long will your personal data be kept?

Devant holds different categories of personal data for different periods of time. Wherever possible, we will endeavour to minimise the amount of personal data that we hold and the length of time for which it is held.

- If we process your data on the basis of 'legitimate interests', we will retain your data for as long as the purpose for which it is processed remains active. We review the status of our legitimate interests every twelve (12) months and will update this notice whenever we determine that either a legitimate interest no longer exists or that a new one has been found.
- All categories of personal data that are held by us because they are essential for the performance of a contract, will be held for a period of six years, as determined by reference to the Limitations Act 1980, for the purposes of exercising or defending legal claims.
- Identity, Contact and Transaction Data are held indefinitely (subject to object by the individual, or individual's having left our client's business) in order to provide a superior service to returning customers.

Who else will receive your personal data?

Devant passes your data to the third parties listed in the section 'Third Party Interests' below.
